Better Together

Ecclesiastes 4:4-16, p. 555, Sept. 18, 2022

Today, we consider the preacher's wisdom against a rugged individualism that marks and erodes work, relationships, and places of power. The fact is, by God's design, we need others way more than we think we do. Come, let's open God's word and be reminded of our need for God's good graces in our lives.

If competitive _____ or self-destructive _____ marks your motivation for work, _____ and a healthy _____ will be elusive. (v4-6)

If a single-minded drive for _____ marks your motivation for work, _____ and aimless _____ will be your legacy. (v7-8)

If the spotlight of _____ drives you, _____ goes unheeded, and you can lose what you _____ most. (v13-16)

But, God's design for living & working in _____...(v9-12)

...yields a better _____ for your labor.

...means someone can _____ - when you fall.

...means you can _____ each other through tough times.

...means others " _____ " when trouble comes your way.
